

Rockin Around The Christmas Tree

The song "Rockin Around The Christmas Tree" performed by Brenda Lee, is widely known as a Christmas classic. It was released in 1958, when Brenda Lee was just 13 years old, and became one of the most iconic songs of that time of year in the United States. The song has a happy and upbeat melody. It gained enormous popularity in the following decades, mainly due to its inclusion in soundtracks such as the film Home Alone in 1990, a Christmas Classic, and commercials.
